IN THE SPECIFICATION:

At page 1, prior to line 1, the "Background Of The Invention," please insert the following:

-- REFERENCE TO A COMPUTER PROGRAM
LISTING APPENDIX SUBMITTED ON COMPACT DISC

Applicants hereby incorporate by reference herein the material on the duplicate compact discs labeled "Copy 1" and "Copy 2" and accompanying the application. The files on these compact discs are identified as follows: IBM PC machine format, MS-Windows operating system compatibility; they include the source code to compile and create the application. The preferred way to compile the application is to use Eclipse Platform 2.1 to load the appropriate source code, and utilize the java compiler on a Windows-based personal computer to create the application. To run the application, Apple – QuickTime should be installed to utilize some imaging conversion routines and Sun's Java SK 1.3 or later. --
